

Los Angeles Antiques Show

April 21, 2010

This exquisite invitation only event plays host to some of Los Angeles' most prominent architects, designers, artists and actors and is intended to stimulate dialogue between members of this prestigious community, all amidst the celebratory background of an elegant cocktail party and some of the world's finest art and antiques. The Opening Night Preview Party is attended by more than 1,000 of the communities most influential professionals and kicks off a weekend long event attended by more than 2,500 patrons of the art and antique world.

The money raised through ticket sales and sponsorship of the Opening Night Preview Party and advertisements in the Show's Exhibition Catalogue go directly to P.S. ARTS. The Party and Exhibition Catalogue give the community an opportunity to continue the important work of P.S. ARTS by allowing the future artists, musicians, designers and creative thinkers to blossom with the basic fundamentals as children.
